

Petition for Divorce Article 103(1) (With Minor Children)

This form is intended for self-represented litigants who have minor children and do not have a covenant marriage. This material is provided as legal information. It cannot take the place of the advice a lawyer can give you. It is always best to speak with a lawyer before taking any legal action. When you represent yourself in court, you must follow all procedures and the law. It is your responsibility to see your case through the whole process.

You must meet all of the following conditions to use these forms:

- You and your spouse have children that are under 18 (born or adopted).
- You and your spouse have lived separate and apart for three hundred sixty five (365) days before filing for divorce.
- You or your spouse must have lived in Louisiana for at least six months and/or lived in Louisiana together when you decided to divorce.
- You did not enter a covenant marriage.
- Your spouse is not an active member of the United States armed forces or any of its allies.

Information you will need:

The exact date and location (parish) where you were married.

The location (parish) where you and your spouse last lived together.

The exact date when you and your spouse began living in separate homes.

The exact current address of your spouse.

The names and dates of birth of all children born of the marriage.

As the person suing for divorce you will be called the Petitioner and your spouse will be called the Defendant. All the forms you need to file for a divorce are attached.

The first form is titled “PETITION FOR DIVORCE”. The Petition for Divorce includes an area titled “VERIFICATION”. You must sign this Verification in front of a Notary Public.

Bring your original Petition for Divorce and Verification, along with two photocopies, to the Clerk of Court in the parish where you live. Go to the Civil Department and tell the clerk you do not have a lawyer, and that you want to file for divorce. Ask the clerk to stamp the date on the copy of the petition you brought to keep for yourself.

In order to proceed, your spouse needs to be given a certified copy of the petition after it has been filed. You can deliver it yourself if your spouse signs the Acceptance of Service OR you can have the Sheriff deliver (or “serve”) your spouse. An acceptance of service may only be signed after the petition has been filed with the clerk and the defendant has been given a certified copy. Also, the acceptance of service must be signed in front of a notary public. If your spouse cannot or will not sign the Acceptance of Service document, you will need to ask the sheriff to serve him/her.

If you are going to have the Sheriff serve your spouse, let the Clerk’s Office know that you need for your spouse to be personally served by a Sheriff’s deputy. You need to give the clerk an address (home or work) where the sheriff can find your spouse to deliver the divorce papers. If the address is hard to find, give the clerk directions. You will need to check back with the Clerk’s Office to see if your spouse has been served. You may have to pay for this service and the amount varies by location.

- A. If your spouse signed the Acceptance of Service, you should bring the signed and notarized form along with a MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY DEFAULT to the Clerk’s Office.

If your spouse has been served by the sheriff, he/she is allowed fifteen (15) days from the date he/she was served to answer the suit. After 15 days, you will need to check with the Clerk’s office to make sure your spouse has not filed an answer or other pleading. If your spouse has filed a motion in opposition to the divorce, these forms are no longer applicable and you will need to come to Court.

If your spouse has NOT filed anything in response to the petition you filed, OR if your spouse has signed the Acceptance of Service, take the form titled MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY DEFAULT to the Clerk's office. Be sure to bring two (2) copies of the Motion for Preliminary Default along with the original. You have the option of taking the motion with the record to the Judge/Commissioner's clerk to get the preliminary default signed or asking the clerk to forward it to the Judge/Commissioner. Either way, ask the Clerk to give you a copy stamped with the date for you to keep. If you choose to have the clerk forward the motion to the Judge/Commissioner, ask to have the other copy of the Motion for Preliminary Default which is marked with the date that the Judge/Commissioner signed it, sent to you.

E. Once your preliminary default has been signed by the Judge/Commissioner complete the form titled AFFIDAVIT OF FACTS. You must sign this form in the presence of a Notary Public and it must be signed after your petition is filed but no more than 30 days before the final Judgment is signed. Also, complete the certification by self-represented litigant and sign it.

Bring the Affidavit of Facts, the certification by self-represented litigant and the JUDGMENT OF DIVORCE to the Clerk's office. Take the complete record to the clerk of the Judge/Commissioner and ask for the Judgment to be signed. Once the Judge/Commissioner has signed your JUDGMENT OF DIVORCE, the Clerk's office will give you a certified copy of it. You are divorced as of the date of the Judge's/Commissioner's signature at the bottom of the Judgment of Divorce. Keep this certified copy for your records.

F. If, when you got married, you chose to use your spouse's name or a combination of you maiden name and your spouse's name and you want to return to using your maiden name or the name of your minor children from a previous marriage, then you should complete the form titled MOTION TO RESUME USING MAIDEN NAME/NAME OF MINOR CHILDREN. You may file this at the same time you file the affidavit of facts and the final judgment of divorce for the Judge/Commissioner to sign. Ask that the motion and order be presented to the Judge/Commissioner after s/he signs the judgment of divorce
