NOTICE

When filing a writ of garnishment, $ 15.00 of the filing fee is a deposit, as a fee for the attorney for the employer who answers the garnishment interrogatories. The employer's attorney may obtain this $ 15.00 upon filing a Request to Withdraw when filing answers to the interrogatories.

If no answer is filed on behalf of the employer or the $ 15.00 is not withdrawn by the employer's attorney the seizing creditor is entitled to a return of the $ 15.00 deposit by filing a Request to Withdraw.

This is the proper form for filing a Request to Withdraw.

If you would like more information about garnishment deposits, please see our Garnishment Clerk.
